

Christopher Pyne's WALK AGAINST CHILD SLAVERY

with

Reverend Tim Costello

Saturday 22 November 2008

10am to 1pm

Corner of West and South Terrace

KENSINGTON GARDENS

Participate in the Walk Against Child Slavery and help us raise awareness of the plight of children around the world who are victims of human trafficking and slavery.

The Walk will consist of a series of interactive stations that will highlight the key issues that affect millions of children around the world that are victims of modern day slavery. The aim of the stations is to educate members of the community on the extent of the global problem and how they can respond positively to stop the exploitation of children around the world and to show what Australians can do to be part of the solution.

The Walk is designed for families and children to participate and there will be other children's entertainment including face painting, clowns, a sausage sizzle and a fair trade café.
